

To what extent is language the gatekeeper of personal knowledge production?

To what extent is language the gatekeeper of shared knowledge production?

British North America Act of 1867

- Canadian Constitution

eh?

A

61 years later

---

1928

*Would all of the "persons" please leave this room.

$$\left(\frac{1}{10}\right)^2$$

E

C

$\approx$

D

$$\frac{4}{10}$$

$\approx$

C

How did language impact Canada's women in the early 19th century?

Be exact in your essays.

Be specific in your essays.

Explain your interpretation of the key words within the prompt.

confidence

Otherwise...

What does it mean to be "exact?"

From your prompts, which terms could have multiple interpretations and need explanation?

What does it mean to be "exact?"

From your prompts...

- 1) "production of knowledge" & "confusion"
- 2) "confidence," "little," & "doubt"
- 3) "uniformities"
- 4) "suspension of disbelief"
- 5) "quality," "proportional," & "duration"
- 6) "robust," "consensus," "disagreement"